DESIGN INTERN

@ 87AM NYC

October 2014 - Present

I make social media image posts and web assets for entertainment and beauty clients, like Disney on Ice, L'Oréal, The Lion King on Broadway, and Swarovski. Some days I come to work and feel like a pretty princess designer.

SOCIAL COPYWRITING INTERN

@ WIEDEN+KENNEDY NYC

June 2014 - September 2014

As part of the social team, I developed concepts and copy for the Equinox social media accounts. I never knew I could talk like a badass sexy gym trainer until my first day of work at W+K.

CO-FOUNDER & CREATIVE DIRECTOR

@ THE VENTURE DEPT.

May 2013 - June 2014

After launching a creative agency, I shaped the talent pool and culture while serving as Creative Director. I gave artistic and strategic direction to all products and contributed a good portion of the writing and design.

PAF COPYWRITING INTERN

@ ISITE DESIGN & THE NEW GROUP

July 2013 - August 2013

As part of the Portland Advertising Federation intern program, I spent six weeks learning at two agencies. In a team with the other PAF interns, I also contributed to a campaign for Nutcase Helmets that won the client pitch. (And some free skid lids, too.)

ONE OF THESE ISN'T TRUE.

1. I maintain a blog about every donut that I eat and love. (Spoiler: that's all of them.)
2. I've given over 100 haircuts and most of them haven't even been my roommate.
3. I went to yoga every day last month.
